“The index books are as interesting as they can be. Even stirs more interest! THANK YOU SO VERY MUCH! We looked through True West and Old West and are completely satisfied the mags are in great shape and we are so pleased. Also thanks for the ones in wraps. All your hard work is sincerely appreciated and we wonder how you keep such good track of them all. Amazing. Keep up the good work and you will hear from us again” (New Mexico).

“You are an incredible source for such periodicals... Your prices are excellent.... Obtaining these is a coup” (England).

“The Outlaw Trail History Center is proud to announce we have purchase a complete set of Real West magazine from member, Larry Walker. Walker has been filling in our collection of True West, Golden West, Frontier Times and American West and as of now we have one of the most complete sets of western magazines. We might add here that Larry gives the center a big discount and looks out for our interests, and we appreciate his help.

With the available indexes, these magazines are a valuable asset to our collection. Besides the researchers who are coming in and using them, the school kids have discovered them. Many students are doing research papers and history fair projects on outlaws and lawmen, and they feel they have found a gold mine....

Shortly after receiving [the magazines], all Uintah High School sophomores were assigned to write a research paper on a list of western characters. Unable to find the material they needed elsewhere, one young man in desperation discovered the Outlaw Trail History Center and Larry’s magazines had all the people on the list. We were then bombarded for a week with hundreds of students” (Newsletter of the Outlaw Trail History Association & Center, Vol. 2, No. 2 - Fall 1992, Vol. 4, No. 1 - Spring 1994).
